P.C.

1. Heard.

2. The Petitioner sought stay of the impugned Judgment and Decree, passed by the Family Court, whereby the Family Court granted divorce to the wife, in her petition, on the ground of cruelty.

3. Taking into consideration the findings arrived at by the Family Court and having interviewed the parties in Chamber, in order to bring about the reconciliation between the parties, we are of the view that the parties are not prepared to resume matrimonial ties, it will not be proper for us to grant any interim Order as sought in the application. Therefore, the application stands rejected.

4. The Appeal be listed for hearing in due course.
